Sharings on Sponsorship

What have I gained through sponsorship? The biggest thing has been learning to trust — regaining trust in myself and in my relationships and trusting the process of recovery. This has led to an increased ability to give and receive love and compassion. The dishonesty of this family disease is that when I arrived at my first meeting, I believed I was a total failure in life; there was no hope for me. If I had truly believed there was no hope, I would have never called the counseling service which directed me to the meeting or gone to the meeting or continued coming to meetings! Through the understanding, love and acceptance that is shared in our meetings, I began to be able to hear possible solutions. I began to take responsibility for my past choices, realizing that I was always doing the best I could with the information that I could access at the time. So, my home group has always been and, in many ways remains, my sponsor. As I risked opening up in the meetings, I finally had the courage to ask individual members (different ones at different times in my program life) to sponsor me. Though I still have trouble opening up at times and making full use of my personal and service sponsors, I have never been shamed for my silence. I had my first service sponsors without knowing that is what they were! The wonderful people who have trusted me to be their sponsor also help me understand myself and my motives. I often feel that I get more out of the relationship than they do. Sponsorship remains an important and essential tool of our program which is mine to use whenever I am willing to do so.

Theresa M., Panel 55, Alternate Delegate Ohio

Sponsorship is Service — I found that reading the introduction to the Twelve Concepts of Service in the Service Manual. Of course, back in the early times, I didn’t have time to worry about service — I just wanted “you” to make me better by “telling me how to get the alcoholic to stop drinking”.

I’m sure many of us have heard this at meetings, and probably said the same thing at one time. Who helped guide us to “changing our attitudes”? Was it a sponsor, or just a caring member of a group? Whoever it was, that person was following the Twelve Concepts of Service. For me, it was my sponsor.

It took me a while to realize that I couldn’t “do this on my own”, but that committee in my head sure had me convinced otherwise. It took a gentle nudge from a member of my home group to get me started in service. That gentle nudge was a kick-start for my recovery.

My expanded family of choice circle brought me to my first sponsor. Just like admitting I was powerless over people, places and things and admitting that my life was unmanageable, it was very humbling to, once again, ask for help. Fortunately, my sponsor understood that.

We drank a lot of coffee, had a lot of lunches together and countless phone calls at all hours of the day and night, most of them starting with me saying, “I don’t know what to do”. Then, I would relate the problem to my sponsor and instead of saying, “Well, figure it out”, my sponsor would reverse the roles – I became the “sponsor” and my sponsor became the “sponsee” – and I’d hear, “Okay, what would you tell me?” It forced me to take a step back and look at the entire situation (the forest), instead of just looking at the problem (which was just the tree). By the time we were done, I’d come up with a solution, with my sponsor’s guidance! Over the years, we shared much laughter and shed many tears together, and I truly began to understand what service and sponsorship truly were.

The recent death of my sponsor also reinforced the idea that it truly is “principles above personalities”. Still, for me, it was a great loss. On the positive side, though, we had a wonderful dinner and visit before that. My sponsor’s emphasis on “work the Steps”, but “practice and live your program every day” will stay with me.

I now have a new sponsor. I have come to understand that Al-Anon is not a temporary fix — it is a life commitment. I owe that dedication to my sponsor and I intend to “pay it forward”, just as my sponsor did for me.

Phil H., Secretary
Sharing on sponsorship

The following is the group input from the workshop “Everything you wanted to know about Sponsorship but were Afraid to Ask.” This was a workshop that was offered at the Ohio AA State Convention in 2016.

How do I know I’m ready to be a Sponsor?

Someone who works on their recovery
Goes to meetings regularly
Not a rescuer
Not judgmental
Has time to do it
Able to accept someone where they are at
Can just be there
Be someone who just listens, not gives advice
Has a personal sponsor
Sponsorship is a we thing, equal partners in recovery
Your Higher Power will guide you
Practice at listening

How do I find and get a Sponsor?

At a meeting, wanted what she had
Trusted them
Kept saying get a sponsor
Consistency in getting to that meeting so they know you will be there
Listened to her
Higher Power guided
Approached by that person at a meeting
Can ask someone to be a temporary sponsor
Someone who reminded me of my Mom

What if I need to end or change the Sponsor relationship?

Be okay when sponsee said they needed a change
Suggest sponsee talk to someone else when we have no experience
Suggest professional help if needed
When relationship is not working, try setting conditions to work toward making it healthier.
If still not working, end the relationship
Some have dropped the relationship without talking about it
Sponsor asked out of relationship due to health reasons
Talked to sponsor about need to move on

What are the commitments of the Sponsor and sponsored?

Anonymity even if married
Trust that nothing will be shared with anyone (even spouse)
Verbalize parameters of sponsor/sponsee relationship
Don’t impose expectations
Take what you like, leave the rest
Suggestions not prescriptions
Mutual respect
Don’t compare stories
Spirituality not religion

Happenings in District 19

About 8 months ago a group of women, most of whom are in recovery and work a 12 Step Program, decided to try and do something about a need that has been obvious in our Athens, Ohio area for a long time. Women for Recovery decided to get the ball rolling on establishing a sober living home where women who are in early recovery from addiction to drugs and alcohol can benefit from the safety of transitional living. The home is envisioned as a place where Southeastern Ohio women can live communally in a safe, secure and sober environment using 12 step principals. Local Al-Anon members are working with AA members and others to make the home a reality. When the facility is open, Al-Anon members hope to take meetings to residents and family members and contribute in other ways in which we can be of service.

In our Serenity Hour group we revamped our book and our format to read both Steps and Traditions. There has been a lot of sickness and injuries in our small group and attendance has been spotty related to those issues. Several members have also decided to get together outside of meetings to study traditions together using CAL.

Notes from District 25 and 51

Summer will be here before you know it and along with the warmer weather, the Ohio Area Convention will be coming to Akron, Ohio.

Mark your calendars now for July 7th, 8th and 9th! Registration information will be coming out in March. The committee has been hard at work planning a great program with something for everyone. Our theme this year is, “Together we can Make it”

There will be Al-Anon, Alateen and AA speakers. We are also planning a raffle with donated baskets as part of our ways and means. If your group would like to donate a basket, please e-mail me so that we have some idea of how many baskets may be arriving.

So, where do I get more information? On our website of course. The Save the Date flyers are already available on the area website.

If you have questions, or if your want to let me know about a basket, you can e-mail me, Jo S at district51afg@gmail.com

We look forward to seeing you there!

District 6, 10 and 30 News

At our December district meeting our committees were formed for 2017. Chairman were picked and new information was passed on to any new people participating. January started out with our Alateen anniversary on January 5. We are very fortunate to have to have such strong Alateen in Northwest Ohio. The speaker was a young gal from Cleveland, Mackenzie. Our Al-Anon groups support Alateen strongly and brought great snacks for everyone to munch on. We did have our District 10 representative Diane P step down due to personal reasons. So we are putting the word out to try to find a new district rep.

Miami Valley AIS continues to be busy with public outreach and support to the groups in our region. On Saturday, April 1, MVAIS will once again be participating in the annual Levine Family foundation health fair in Dayton. This event typically attracts 5,000 people or more and we have two large tables set up with Al-Anon literature, to include schedules, Al-Anon Faces Alcoholism 2017 and other items. Volunteers from our meetings help staff the tables to answer questions share about what Al-Anon is, and isn’t. Last year, we were located right next to the dental check-up station and the year before, we were just around the corner from the free flu shots! The event is held at the Ponitz Center. If you’re in the Dayton area that day, please stop by and say hello!

MVAIS is also hosting a Spring Round-Up on Sunday, May 7, at the Springfield Masonic Community Clubhouse. MVAIS will furnish the main meat dish, as well as coffee and tea. Everyone is asked to bring a covered dish to share. The doors will open at 4:30 PM, dinner will be a 5 and the first lead is at 6 PM. There will be an Alateen and an Al-Anon lead. There will not be a charge for admission – we will observe the 7th Tradition and pass the basket during the evening. Everyone is invited to attend. More information is available on the Miami Valley AIS website – www.alanondaytonoh.org. Hope to see you there!

Districts of Columbus

COAFG will hold an Open House on Saturday, March 9th at the Intergroup Office on Wilson Bridge Road. Noon to 2pm, refreshments will be provided. CAL will be featured and archives displayed. All are welcome to attend.

March 4th is our Co founder’s Birthday. To honor her, plan to “Remember To Forget” a piece of Outreach literature somewhere.

Al-Anon Faces Alcoholism and The Public Outreach Bookmark M-76 are great ideas to “Remember to Forget.”

I have ordered 500 Al-Anon Face Alcoholism to give out at our May meeting for the GR’s.

I will be giving an Al-Anon friend who works at a rehab facility some literature to pass out.

Cindy and I are looking forward to Addiction Studies in August 2-4 2017 in Columbus.

There is lots of help on line to get you started!! http://al-anon.org/members/public-outreach/some-helpful-public-outreach-tools
