

Al-Anon Family Groups

Help and hope for families and friends of alcoholics

Ohio Meeting Etiquette

Starting and stopping on time demonstrates integrity.

Stick to the Agenda.

The spiritual principle of perseverance, while conducting business in the best interest of all AI-Anon, preserves recovery at all levels.

*Two minutes
at the microphone.*

During discussions, limiting our time at the microphone embodies the spiritual principles of humility and trust.

Stay on topic.

The spiritual principle of simplicity while we stay on topic, will help us reach our primary goal to help families and friends of alcoholics.

*If someone
before you says
what you were going to say,....sit down.*

Spiritual
principles:
*efficient
leadership and awareness.*

NO APPLAUSE

No clapping, cheering, or booing, when opinions are shared , demonstrates mutual respect and creates an atmosphere of harmony.

RESPECT

conversations.*

The spiritual principle of courtesy is shown when we actively listen and form our own conclusions, leaving out reactions, opinions and judgments.

No miscellaneous distractions.

Show discipline and respect for the service commitments of those who have prepared for the meeting.

Keeping our cell phones muted demonstrates consideration for those around us as we focus on our meetings.

FRAGRANCE FREE

No perfumes or flowers. Be respectful and understanding of others

If you are unable to attend a session, notify the Chair.

Our spiritual principles of selflessness and dedication are evident when we do the right thing and are responsible to those we serve.

Keeping an accurate count of members present at a Meeting is essential during voting.

Practice spiritual principles and presume goodwill.

By practicing humility, harmony
and unity, we can reach our ideals
